My prefacing letter to the Annual Report reminded:

"Faith, Hope and Charity: As Freemasons, our Faith is in God; our Hope is in our youth, and the greatest of these is Charity. Consider for a moment how important Masonic Charity is to those who need it."

We are justifiably proud of what has been accomplished through eighty years at the Masonic Homes: the beautiful, well-kept grounds and buildings, the first-class staff and facilities and friendly, "at home" atmosphere provided for the guests — young and old.

A visit to the Masonic Homes is something every Pennsylvania Mason should experience. You are welcome to stop in while traveling in the area or on vacation. Volunteer guests are always on hand to give guided tours. (Keep in mind the popular funfests at the Homes is Autumn Day, October 18.) A visit to the Homes is an experience you'll always remember and talk about with a satisfaction of charity well served and with pride in your Fraternity.

Sincerely and fraternal,

Bro. W. Scott Stoner
R. W. Grand Master

If you want to know what to tell your friends about Masonry and what Masons do, take a look at the 1990 Annual Report of the Masonic Homes at Elizabethtown. It was distributed early in June and a copy was sent to every Lodge Secretary.

The Annual Report tells so much that is meaningful in our Fraternity that it should be priority reading for every Pennsylvania Mason. Certainly, it is a beautiful publication; but, most important, it tells a story of living values in our Fraternity.

The Grand Master Speaks...

Pride in what we do as a Fraternity: the values we hold and exemplify; our services to others, and leadership in our communities: These are both the essence and benefits of public awareness of Freemasonry.

Throughout my travels, I have sensed the enthusiasm the Brethren have for the Masonic Awareness Program. Masonic Awareness among the public results that the public wants to know what we are as Masons do. The charity of the Masonic Homes is one of our great stories. We can and must tell our story. That is a new experience for many of us. We have long been the quiet Fraternity; but we must seize the opportunity to communicate, while always remembering to support the name we have always borne, of being a respectable, regular and uniform Fraternity.

Sincerely and fraternal,

Bro. W. Scott Stoner

Washington Lodge No. 164

Long active in his community wherever he and his family resided, Bro. Hoover was well respected and admired by all of those who got to know him. A member of the McConnellburg Ministerium, he had served on the Executive Board and was also active on various committees of the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran Church. He served as the Secretary and former Dean of the Synod’s Chambersburg District and was also active in the Central Pennsylvania Council of Churches.

Bro. Hoover was a Charter member and Warrant Master of Mount Zion Lodge No. 774 F. & A.M. of Pennsylvania. He was active in all branches of Freemasonry and was Coronated a 33rd Degree Mason in 1959 in Buffalo, New York. From 1962 until 1973, he served as District Deputy Grand Master of the 14th Masonic District.

Veterans of the Battle of the Coral Sea

May 1952 will see the 50th Anniversary of the Battle of the Coral Sea. Celebra­ tions are being planned throughout Queensland during that month. Naval, Military and Air Force Lodge No. 175 under the United Grand Lodge of Queensland will be conducting special Lodge Meetings to mark the occasion.

Perseverance Lodge No. 21

In 1959, the Members of Perseverance Lodge No. 21 of Harrisburg formed a Lodge Blood Bank (Donor Club), which has been interacting with the community ever since. The Donor Club includes donors from all Masonic Lodges in Districts 2, 3, and 60. They have provided over 2,500 pints of blood to eight member hospitals, three of which are medical centers. In the past 32 years, 99 Donor Club recipients have received over 1,000 pints of blood replacement at absolutely no cost to them.

Over 100 of the donors are “Gallon Donor Members,” who have given nearly eight gallons. Bro. George H. Hohenshildt, R.W.G.W., is an active donor who has given more than six gallons to date.

Bro. Dr. H. Morgan, P.M., has been Chairman of the Donor Club since 1964. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Central Pennsylvania Blood Bank, the clearing-house with which all area Donor Clubs are affiliated.

The Reverend Bro. David R. Hoover Receives Final Call

Bro. David R. Hoover, one of our recently active Grand Chaplains of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, responded to the call of The Grand Architect of The Universe on Wednesday, April 3, 1991. Bro. Hoover was Pastor of Buck Valley Zion Lutheran Church in Watauga, Fulton County, Pennsylvania at the time of his death. He spent twenty years serving the State House of Representatives as their Chaplain and served in this capacity in several other organizations during his lifetime.

Washington Lodge No. 292

by Bro. Thomas W. Jackson, R.W.G. Grand Secretary

My Brethren:

One of the most frequent requests I receive is to provide a response that Members can give to those who speak out against Freemasonry, especially to those who represent “the Church.” In recent years our Members have become more aware of anti-Masonic propaganda not only because of the increase of radical attitudes within various religious groups, but also because of the use of modern media for them to disseminate their message.

Most of our Members, when they hear or see this propaganda, become very defensive and wish to respond to it. We have, however, lost very few Members as a result of it.

There is little value for the average Member of the Masonic Fraternity to attempt to debate these radical elements of the Church. In most cases their minds are closed to but a few of their own ideas.

The Duke of Kent, in an address to the United Grand Lodge of England, stated that “many of us became Freemasons because we know that someone whom we admire is both in the Craft and proud of it.” I do very much wish that we consider the reason we became a Member of the Masonic Fraternity whether there has been a change in that reason.

I am not aware of any organized religion other than Christianity that take specific issue with the Fraternity. Yet some of the most notable men who have ever lived have been anti-Freemasons and anti-Christian. The radical elements of Christianity infer that none can be both and imply since Freemasonry is not a Christian organization it must be anti-Christian. Knowing what we know, this form of reasoning is so totally irrational. Think back. Have you ever heard any anti-religious comments of any kind in Freemasonry?

I would ask these critics of Freemasonry how men like Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, Dr. Joseph Fort Newton and Dr. Albert Schweitzer, great Christian leaders, could justify their Membership? The implication that they were either ignorant of the true meaning of Freemasonry or were not true Christians is an impossible assumption.

Writings by some of our own Members are quoted as evidence of a reason to oppose it. It is well to remember that what is written by a Freemason does not necessarily reflect Freemasonry’s philosophy any more than all minister’s writings reflect the philosophy of the Church.

All Members of the Fraternity will probably at one time or another be exposed to anti-Masonic propaganda. It is advantageous for each of us to be able to discuss intelligently our relationship with our God and our Craft. It is recommended, however, that debate be left to those qualified to debate. Do not allow yourself to become antagonistic or overly defensive. Freemasonry, due to its inherent truths and principles, has served far greater threats than these. The best defense we can offer is by living lives which exemplify the true meaning of Freemasonry. We will then be the example to someone who wishes to join because of those he admires within the Craft.

Over 100 Donor Clubs are affiliated with the United Grand Lodge of Queensland.
Masons III

This was a three-generation meeting with Bros. John L. McCain, Jr., conferring the Fellowcraft and Master Mason Degrees on his son, Bro. John L. McCain, III and assisted by Bros. John L. McCain, R.W.P.G.M., the grandfather. All three are members of Milnor Lodge No. 287 in the 5th Masonic District. This special Centennial was held on May 28, 1991 with a Dispensation, since the Candidate is now living and working in Alabama. (left to right) Bros. John L. McCain, R.W.P.G.M., John L. McCain, III, George H. Gray, Jr., W.M., John L. McCain, Jr. and David K. Johnston, D.D.G.M., 5th District.

3, 1853, all in Mt. Moriah Lodge No. 155. He died February 2, 1875. The provenance of the settee, since it was rescued from the Masonic Hall, was probably this: it spent a great deal of time in New Jersey, then passed into the hands of a private collector, who then offered it for sale to James and Nancy Glazer, Philadelphia antique dealers. The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania purchased it from them in April 1991 through the Bros. Maxwell Sommerville Fund, and has placed it on deposit with The Masonic Library and Museum of Pennsylvania.

Brothers’ Bench

Our Grand Lodge is happy to welcome home a relic from the first Masonic Hall on the north side of Chestnut Street between Seventh and Eighth Streets, used from 1811 until it was destroyed by fire March 8, 1819 (partly rebuilt). A red-oak Windsor settle, built about 1810 in Philadelphia and used in the Hall, came back to the Grand Lodge, arriving on May 8, 1891. The settle is of a very curious thirty-five inches long, thirty-one and one-half inches high and sixteen and one-half inches deep. It is made of turned, carved and painted (first blue, then in 1859, green) maple, poplar and pine woods. Upon its arrival, the staff carefully carried it into the Library and turned it upside down. Painted in white on the underside of the seat is the following: E. D. Jeffries, Lodge 155, Mark Lodge 214, A.Y.M. 1853. Carved into the seat, also underneath, are the initials AB. Research has turned up some information. There were two men listed in the City Directory for 1810 bearing the initials AB who could have possibly been the maker: Abraham Boyer and Alexander Burns, both of whom were listed as carpenters. Neither of these men was a Freemason. E. D. Jeffries, the probable painter of the settle, seems to be Bro. Emmer D. Jeffries, an artist, who was Entered on November 23, 1852, Passed December 28, 1852, and Raised February 3, 1853, all in Mt. Moriah Lodge No. 155. He died February 2, 1875. The provenance of the settle, since it was rescued from the Masonic Hall, was probably this: it spent a great deal of time in New Jersey, then passed into the hands of a private collector, who then offered it for sale to James and Nancy Glazer, Philadelphia antique dealers. The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania purchased it from them in April 1991 through the Bros. Maxwell Sommerville Fund, and has placed it on deposit with The Masonic Library and Museum of Pennsylvania.

From the Librarian and Curator’s Desk

Records, Regalia, Research!

It is the hope of the Board of Directors and the members of the staff of The Masonic Library and Museum of Pennsylvania that those attics, storage rooms, and perhaps well hidden in unexpected places, of many of our Blue Lodges will find their way to the collections here in the Masonic Temple in Philadelphia. Unfortunately, there are many very important items that never reach the safety of the Library and Museum. Before any Lodge item, such as Records, Jewels, or Regalia are disbursed by any means, the Officers of the Lodges should make contact with the Masonic Library and Museum and see if these items could be placed in the collections where they would be made available to future generations of the Craft. It is so vitally important that we preserve our contemporary records so that the history of this, our Masonic Fraternity, will be well represented in the future years. This is necessary since we will shortly take the giant leap into the twenty-first century. It is up to us to see that the true story of Freemasonry is told and only through the existence of properly cared-for records and memorabilia can this be done with any accuracy.

Masonic Health Care Center
Catalog of Needs for Resident Rooms

Phase II of the remodeling and construction of the Masonic Health Care Center has begun. This phase is expected to be completed in less than two years and will include the construction of a new wing complete with the most up-to-date design, convenience, and efficiency of a new nursing home. Each nursing floor is designed to provide four clusters with 12 residents living in each cluster. All nursing and ancillary services will have equipment and staff to treat each cluster as an independent unit. This will provide a more homelike atmosphere, having smaller autonomous units. This wing is scheduled for completion in 1993.

A total of 156 resident rooms will need to be furnished. Listed below is a catalog of some of the items the Masonic Health Care Center will need to furnish each room. An order form is included for you to select what item(s) you would like to purchase (or contribute to) and the cost per item. Remember, a total of 156 of each item will need to be purchased; therefore, you may wish to purchase more than one of the same item. The pictures of items shown represent items to be purchased and may not necessarily be the exact item. All items will be bid on in order to obtain the best purchase price and utilize contribution dollars to the fullest extent.

We will be listing additional items in subsequent issues of The Pennsylvania Freemason.

Masonic Education

Returning Suspended Members To Good Masonic Standing

When a man asks to become a Mason, he takes a number of important obligations. A Master Mason takes the responsibilities of Brotherhood, Fellowship, and Charity, as well as continuing Membership. All Masons value their Blue Lodge affiliation for the rest of their days. If this be true, why have 22,257 Master Masons been suspended for non-payment of dues in the last ten years? There is no single reason for these suspensions, but the loss of great concern to the Blue Lodges, the Grand Lodge and the Committee on Masonic Education.

What can be done to end this decline and secure the return of the suspended Masons? A Lodge should make personal contact with the suspended Member to determine if he remains interested in his Lodge which he sought to join. The Lodge Members should inform him that he only needs to pay the amount of dues for which he has been suspended.

3. The Lodge should inquire of the Mason why he didn't pay his dues, and if a financial need existed the Lodge should attend to the need.

4. When the Lodge has granted good Masonic standing to the suspended Member for paying his back dues, the Mason may petition any Lodge for Membership.

Responsibility for stemming the decline of Membership lies with every Mason in Pennsylvania. Brethren uniting to reach out to suspended Members can be a very effective force. Personal contact with the suspended Member shows that his brothers care about him and are willing to take the necessary steps to insure that a suspended Member receives the proper education and guidance.

Seniors Awarded Masonic Scholarships

Six seniors from high schools of Pennsylvania were awarded Masonic scholarships by the R. W. Grand Master W. Scott Stoner at the banquet following the Special Communication in Lancaster on April 25, 1991. Each of the students had written an award-winning paper on Brother James Bachman. All students and their parents were present to receive their scholarships.

The state-wide winner was Heather Bainbridge of Wyoming High, who received a $2,500 scholarship. Scholarships of $1,000 were awarded to: John Tachovsky, Kincer School; Kelly Ann Burke, Bradford; Aaron Delp, Myerstown; John Westell, Yemange; and Jean W. Orr, Montoursville.

Masons of Pennsylvania have an abiding interest in the welfare and education of our youth. Many Masonic scholarships are available for students of merit. For more information, please contact the Committee on Masonic Education.

Grants Important to Help Jefferson Hospital Treat Addicted Women/Children

According to information published by the Thomas Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia, grants from the Pennsylvania Masonic Foundation for the Prevention of Drug and Alcohol Abuse have made possible the operation of facilities targeted at breaking the generation chain of addiction.

The Family Center of the Department of Pediatrics at Thomas Jefferson Hospital offers both residential and outpatient programs that provide prenatal, perinatal and post-natal counseling and treatment for addicted pregnant women.

The outpatient facility is a clinic staffed by obstetricians trained in addiction. The program combines medical intervention and education. Pregnant women and addicted mothers and children. The children born to drug-dependent women are often subject to double jeopardy — that is, biological risk combined with a mother who is at risk for successful parenting. The primary focus of the Parent/Child Centers is to develop and so enhance positive receptivity and skills in order to promote optimal development of the children.

57 Foundation Grants Total $1.2 Million

In the report to the Grand Lodge at the Quarterly Communication, R. W. Past Grand Master Carl W. Schenker, Jr., reported the Pennsylvania Masonic Foundation for the Prevention of Drug and Alcohol Abuse Among Children has provided fifty-seven grants totaling $1,216,584.

The major grants are directed toward breaking the generation chain of addiction. The largest grants for treatment are $92,000 each to Thomas Jefferson University Hospital in Philadelphia and to St. Francis Medical Center in Pittsburgh for operating satellite facilities where addicted pregnant women and addicted new mothers and their babies can receive regular "walk-in" care and counseling. It is anticipated that programs will be established soon in two additional metropolitan areas of the state.

Grants in support of the Pennsylvania Department of Education's program to train Student Assistance Program (SAP) personnel have totaled $138,000. These provide for the costs of operating, housing and feeding SAP trainees at facilities made available by the Pennsylvania Youth Foundation at the Masonic Conference Center on the Patton Campus at Elizabethtown.

Student Assistance Program Teams now have been trained for every secondary school in the state and are being trained for elementary schools.

Talks By Foundation Speakers Well Received

In approximately a twelve-week period, eight members of the Speakers Team of the Pennsylvania Masonic Foundation for the Prevention of Drug and Alcohol Abuse Among Children gave seventeen presentations reaching 557 persons.

Most of the programs, fourteen in all, were to Lodges; one was to a group of ladies of a Lodge; one to a Royal Arch Chapter; and one to a Shrine Club. Hearing the message were 138 men, 73 women and 46 youths.

The speakers report high levels of interest in the drug and alcohol prevention programs and the activities of the Masonic Foundation. Questions for quietly concern the support of the Student Assistance Program in schools, the allocation of grants and how to support the Foundation.

Masonic Foundation speakers present their programs free; but frequently the Lodges or organizations contribute to the Program. Among donations on the current speakers' reports were Lodge contributions of $25, $100 and $1,200.

The Job's Daughters of Pennsylvania recently planted a tree at the Masonic Conference Center-Patron Campus in Elizabethtown. The tree was planned to commemorate the visit of the Supreme Guardian, Lynda Stone, who is sponsoring Project "Dig-In" among Job's Daughters internationally. This project is aimed at improving the environment in which all live.

The daughters gathered at the Patson Campus for their Grand Befehl Weekend, and Supreme Visitation. Bro. Tom Labagh, Executive Director of the Pennsylvania Youth Foundation, and Bro. Richard Hall, Associate Grand Guardian, supervised the enthusiastic work of Carey Will, Supreme Bethel Honorated Queen, Angela Bonger, Grand Bethel Honorated Queen, Gerritte Rinne, Grand Guardian, and Lynda Stone, Supreme Guardian.

The tree was planted, with the help of the Masonic Homes Landscape Department, along the main drive into the campus. The daughters are pleased to be able to contribute to the beauty of the campus and to help our environment in a positive way.

The Awareness Program Works at the Grassroots

A half-dozen people were having lunch at a committee planning meeting in June for the local chapter of a national charity when a lady who is very active in her community, said, "I saw the Mason's ad. I thought they were secret. I never knew they did that much for other people."

That was a perfect opener and the Mason at the table didn't miss the Masonic Awareness opportunity to tell the story of the Fraternity. Another lady, the owner of a major business in the area, asked about Masonry, religion and who can be a Mason; and an executive said no one ever talked to him about Masonry and he has never been asked to become a Mason.

In about ten minutes during a luncheon, five of that community's key leaders learned more than they had ever known about Masonry, its people and its values— whom we are, what we stand for and what we do. It happened because the Grand Lodge Awareness Program is working at the grassroots, encouraging people to ask about the Fraternity. It can be happening everywhere in the State.

Throughout the Spring, Pennsylvania in all parts of the Commonwealth saw the "Men Who Make a Difference" message of the "Keeping the Promise of America" Awareness Program. By the hundreds, people interested in the principles of Masonry and the role of Masons, in the community responded to the message and called our 800 number to get more information about the Fraternity.

Ninety per cent of those who called for information were not Masons. About a quarter of them learned about Masonry by watching cable television; most of the rest were one or two-third responded to the newspaper advertisement, and about seven per cent of the responses resulted either from personal referrals or they couldn't verify where they received the message. There were calls from most of the zip-code areas in Pennsylvania and several from other states (either residents of bordering states or visitors who took the message with them to their home states).

Every inquiry received a personal contact at the grassroots. Grand Lodge forwarded the information that resulted from each call to the appropriate District Deputy Grand Master who turned it over to the Worshipful Master of the Lodge serving the area of the caller. Feedback indicates that people really do want to know more about the Fraternity and are pleased about the personal attention given in helping them understand Freemasonry.

The Grand Lodge Awareness Program is just that — an Awareness Program. It is not a recruiting effort. However, there have been men of good character who asked "How do I join the Masons" because they have seen the good things we do in serving mankind and they appreciate the values of the Fraternity.

It is important for the Lodges to be involved in their communities — to be visible and open in their deeds. It is also important for all Masons to be proud of their Fraternity — to live Masonry and show that pride — and to be able to discuss the values and activities of Freemasonry with their families, friends and neighbors.

We are "Men Who Make a Difference" at the grassroots. We're part of "Keeping the Promise of America."

Districts, Lodges Invited to Join in Support of Awareness Program

This is one of the eye-catching billboards on location in the Grand Lodge Public Awareness Program. The message has been seen already in some areas of Pennsylvania and, through the grassroots effort, should be seen statewide.

The goal of the Pennsylvania Masonic Awareness Program remains to revitalize our own pride in the values, commitment and leadership in our Fraternity at the same time that it encourages our friends and neighbors to want to know more about us and our standing in the community. In short, it means taking the message to the grassroots.

Working through the organization of the Grand Lodge Masonic Education Committee, Areas, Districts and Lodges are asked to band together to join Grand Lodge in "Keeping the Promise of America" visible in their communities.

Based upon the commitment and Grand Lodge cooperation, advertising will be directed in the service areas of the participating Lodges and Districts.

Grand Lodge requires the use of its advertising material and will target their placement according to the respective local commitments and budgetary capabilities.

Questions and interest for local participation in the grassroots effort should be addressed through the Lodge, District, and Area Chairmen.

St. Alban-Swain Lodge No. 529

On Saturday, April 20, 1991, the Committee on Masonic Education of St. Alban-Swain Lodge No. 529 sponsored a pilgrimage to Wheatland, the home of President and Bro. James Buchanan, and to Woodward Hill Cemetery, the burial site of Bro. Buchanan, where the Officers and Members of Lodge No. 529 held a Memorial Service and wreath laying ceremony. Dr. Philip S. Klein, official biographer of Buchanan, was the guest of the Lodge on this special day. While at Wheatland, Dr. Klein inscribed two copies of his book, President James Buchanan. One was inscribed to the Right Worshipful Grand Master, W. Scott Stoner, and the other was inscribed to The Masonic Library and Museum of Pennsylvania. Both copies were presented to the Grand Master at the Special Communication commemorating the 200th anniversary of the birth of President Buchanan held at Lancaster, Pennsylvania on April 23, 1991. The books were presented by the Lodge Secretary and Masonic Education Chairman Bro. Joseph DiPinto, Jr., P.M.

Barger Lodge No. 325

At the February Stated Meeting of Barger Lodge No. 325, Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania, Bro. Harry Janson, age 91, and the Tyler of his Lodge, was honored by the Officers and Members of the Lodge for having attained seventy years service to the Fraternity. He became a Mason in Richard Vaux Lodge No. 325 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on September 12, 1921, where he remained a member until 1980, when he subsequently was elected as a Member of Barger Lodge No. 325. He was presented a Seventy-Year Masonic Service Certificate by Bro. Homer Joseph, D.D.G.M. of the 50th Masonic District, and a dinner was held at the Lodge prior to the Meeting in his honor. It is said that Bro. Janson claims the stairs to the second floor meeting hall just as easily as the new or the youngest members.
