Bro. Yeager Retires Due to Health

Bro. William E. Yeager, R. W. Past Grand Master, has retired from the Committee on Masonic Homes after 32 years of dedicated service.

In submitting his resignation to the Grand Master effective Sept. 15, Bro. Yeager wrote:

"Due to the condition of my health, after 32 years of service, I must retire.

"My Masonic service has been most rewarding and the value of the friendships resulting from the service and associations in Masonry is inestimable.

"As stated in a Masonic Degree, 'Life without friends is useless' and based on that premise my life has been richly endowed.

"Masonry has done far more for me than I could ever do for it. It is my hope that I may have made some positive contribution as a token payment on my debt to the Fraternity, which I acknowledge but which I realize I can never repay.

"It is my hope and prayer all of you may continue to get much joy and satisfaction out of your service to our Brethren in the sunset of their lives."

Bro. Yeager was made a Mason in Hazle Lodge No. 327, Hazleton, in 1918. Having moved to Warren, Bro. Yeager was the guiding influence in the forming of Joseph Warren Lodge No. 726 in 1923.
