Marketplace in Planning Stages

he Masonic Village at Elizabethtown is working in conjunction with Wagman Construction, Inc., to possibly develop a marketplace at the main entrance to the campus, as part of its 20 year master plan. The project could involve renovating four of the historic stone buildings, and building on adjacent property in that area to accommodate some convenient services for Masonic Village residents and staff, as well as the Elizabethtown community.

In addition to relocating the farm market to this more convenient location, this marketplace would be an ideal location for a mixed-use commercial, retail and office development for such amenities as a restaurant, dry cleaner, retail shop, bank, hotel or medical or other business offices. Initial occupancy is projected for 2005.

Wagman Construction Inc., is conducting a marketing feasibility study for developing this project. For more information and to discuss lease opportunities, contact Lisa Wagman Glezer at 717-577-4252 or lisawagman@wagman.com-

f you ask most people where they would like to spend their retirement years, they will respond, "I want to stay right here."

"Home" represents security and independence, but with age, it becomes more and more difficult to maintain - while also driving to doctor appointments, shopping, cooking and doing household chores.

The question then becomes, "to move or not to move?" Consider these benefits of moving to a retirement community: · Convenience of nearby amenities and NO household chores! · Built-in activities and socialization opportunities · Security; when the time comes that you need more care, those services are at hand, ensuring that your future needs are covered.

The Residential Living area at the Masonic Village at Elizabethtown combines an active lifestyle and convenience in one place. Studio, suite and double units are offered furnished. at no extra charge, but you can bring your own furnishings if you wish. Dining is not just about food, but also offers a social time for many. Three meals a day are included with the Residential Living package. On-site health care services take care of your medical needs. Shuttle service transports you to on-campus and off-campus sites.

Elizabethtown Cottages Take Shape

Tottage construction is in full swing at Masonic Village at Elizabethtown! With 102 cottages to be built on the site, the first 18 units are scheduled for completion and occupancy in November. Construction for the remaining cottages will continue throughout 2005 and 2006.

Within a neighborhood-type setting, cottages will feature stone, brick or stucco exteriors with some of the units offering two-car garages and basements. Inside, standard features will include sunrooms, cathedral ceilings with skylights, spacious living accommodations and other finishing touches. New residents have 30+ additional options from which to choose,

The cottages are being built in response to the tremendous demand for this type of retirement living option. Many people, who previously may have moved to other types of adult retirement communities, are recognizing the value and benefits of living on a campus where quality health care services are available if needed in the future.

Even with the new construction, the waiting list for all units including apartments and cottages continues to grow. Therefore, if you are considering a move to the Masonic Village at Elizabethtown some time in the future, we encourage you to place your name on our Priority List NOW. If you are at least age 55, you may place your name on the waiting list, and at age 65 you are eligible to move to Retirement Living. One spouse, in the case of a couple, needs to meet the aforementioned criteria.

Get Ready for Masonic Village at Sewickley!

T f you were to survey the more than 230 retirement living residents at Masonic Village at Sewickley, about 90 percent of them likely will tell you they wish they would have moved sooner. And yet each day the marketing team hears the phrase, "I'm just not ready yet," from those who have not yet decided to make the move.

So, what is it that they're not ready for? Health care security? Eliminating home maintenance? Developing friendships? Spending more free time pursuing interests?

While younger retirees are now choosing retirement community living, there are still some who feel they need to wait until some type of health change limits their mobility. The reality is that the sooner they join a community, the > sooner they can enjoy the many benefits.

Masonic Village at Sewickley offers two restaurants, a large indoor pool, jacuzzi, fitness center, woodworking shop, computer center, art studio and miles of walking trails. Life that is as active or serene as you want it to be.

Masonic Village at Sewickley provides a full lifecare agreement, which allows residents to continue paying at the same monthly rate structure even if they should some day need assisted living or nursing care services.

If you think you are "just not ready," you owe it to yourself to see what retirement community living has to offer. For information or a personal tour, contact the marketing team at (866) 872-0664 or return the coupon below.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Together we've made history by successfully orchestrating the largest One Day Man to Mason Adventure to date. The 3.000 of you who have joined our Masonic family on October 2, as well as the 2,500 additional candidates who have chosen the traditional process, have embarked on one of the most important and rewarding journeys you will ever experience. Brethren, our membership has grown by five percent already this year, and it's not over yet!

The top location for the One Day Adventure was Pittsburgh with 738 new members, including 700 raised to the 32nd degree with approximately 800 who became Shrine Masons. The second was Harrisburg with 621 new members, including 437 achieving the 32nd degree and 229 continuing on to the Shrine. The top five Districts with new members are Masonic Districts 12, 60, 47, 55 and 20,

You should be proud! If your lodge has not reached its goal yet, the good news is that the initiative continues through December 31, 2004. Keep membership on the forefront of your minds as we rejuvenate and strengthen this great Fraternity with new members, new ideas and new leaders.

We were honored to be joined by Shrine dignitaries such as the Imperial Recorder, who visited many sites around the Commonwealth on October 2.

The past few months have been jampacked with opportunities to Share the Light and show friends, relatives, neighbors and coworkers what Freemasonry is all about.

Turning prospects into petitions is really that simple. Men will join our ranks if they see someone in YOU who they respect, admire and appreciate - someone who, by their example, inspires them to want to be better.

showcasing the magnificent Masonic Temple. Proceeds from this spectacular event will support the Masonic CHIP program in its efforts to protect youth across the Commonwealth from abductions. Our goal is to raise $200,000 to continue our already successful efforts. This year, so far, over 70,000 youth have participated in the school program, Masonic Temples and other locations, and in doing so have Shared the Light with countless fathers, grandfathers and uncles who have witnessed first-hand how Freemasons are working together to make our communities safer places to live, work and play. See the ad in this issue for more details on the first-class entertainment planned for this black tie event. (please turn to page 10.)

One of the most fascinating aspects of Freemasonry is how so many men, from so many walks of life, can meet together in peace, always conducting their affairs in harmony and friendship. I've seen this in my visits around the country but particularly here in Pennsylvania. October 2nd was the epitome of teamwork, brotherhood, outreach and cooperation. Let us sustain and intensify the spirit of that day as we look ahead to what we can accomplish together in 2005.

Our early Brethren came together to build strong and beautiful buildings, and in the process developed lasting relationships, relief efforts and thriving communities.

For centuries, Freemasons have been moving the world in a better direction. This is our heritage and our charge. This year we have grown our Fraternity considerably, and increased our ability to impact our society that much more. Together, we CAN continue to make a difference - in our lodges, in our communities and in the world around us.

To our new Brethren: I urge you to take advantage of the many benefits that

by James N. Katsaounis, P.M. pennsylvania Freemasonry is proud to have as one of its members, Hon. Bro. Seamus P. McCaffery. Known to many as the judge who brought justice to Veterans Stadium, former home of the Philadelphia Eagles, he has exemplified his life and career as a true Freemason. Today Bro. McCaffery has a seat on the Superior Court of Pennsylvania, a position he was elected to in November 2003, following a career of law enforcement that began some 36 years ago when as a young high school graduate he entered the United States Marine Corps.

The paths taken and the accomplishments achieved by Bro. McCaffrey is the fulfillment of a true. American dream. He was born in Belfast, Northern Ireland, the second of seven children born to Seamus and Rita McCaffery. After immigrating to America, he completed his high school education from the well-known

Cardinal Dougherty High School in Philadelphia. His career path to serving his new country began when he joined the U.S. Marine Corps as a private after graduating high school in 1968. On completion of his active duty service, he continued to serve his country in the Marine Corps Reserve, rising to the rank of Captain. In 1985, Bro. McCaffery transferred into the U.S. Air Force Reserve, where he took over as the Commanding Officer of the 913th Security Police Squadron. He continued to serve in the Air Force Reserve, rising to the rank of Colonel. During his assignment to Air Combat Command Headquarters at Langley Air Force Base, VA, he was mobilized in support of Operation Noble Eagle after our country was attacked on September 11, 2001. Today he continues to defend our country as the Emergency Preparedness Liaison Officer for Homeland Defense to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Bro. McCafferv's career in defending our country didn't stop with his unyielding dedication to military service, but continued on the home front locally when in 1970 he joined the Philadelphia Police Department. For the next 20 years, before ultimately retiring as a highly-decorated veteran from Philadelphia Police, he distinguished himself as a patrolman, a plainclothes Vice/Narcotics investigator, a detective in the Homicide and Major Crimes Division and rose to the rank of Supervisor. While working fulltime for Philadelphia Police, Bro. McCaffery pursued his education, earning a Bachelor's degree from LaSalle University, and then his Juris Doctor degree from Temple University School of Law.

Bro, McCaffery became one of the first, if not the only, former Philadelphia Police officers to become an attorney while working fulltime. He became a member of the Pennsylvania, New Jersev and Washington. D.C. bars and worked as a litigation associate. He went on to become the first retired Philadelphia Police officer ever elected as a trial judge in Philadelphia County. While serving as a trial judge, Bro. McCaffery distinguished himself again with his innovation of the Nuisance Night Court and the creation of the National Football League's first and only Court, conducted during each Philadelphia Eagles football home games. His progressive style won him national recognition, appearing on ESPN, Dateline, Inside Edition, MSNBC, Good Morning America and on every major radio talk show and newspaper across the country. A major Philadelphia newspaper labeled him "Philadelphia's Quality of Life Judge." His hard work. innovative programs, and outstanding ability to exercise the law didn't go unnoticed by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, when they appointed him in October 2001 as Administrative Judge of the 4th largest court in America, the Philadelphia Municipal Court.

Bro. McCaffery is happily married to Lise Rapaport, Esquire, and has three sons, Sean, Jim and Brian. What made you first take interest in Freemasonry? "As a student of both American History and Philadelphia History, I would visit the cerneteries of some of America's greatest leaders and while visiting some of the monuments, I noticed that there was a significant connection between these great Americans and Freemasonry."

How did you come to join Freemasonry?

"After learning that the square and compasses was a symbol of Freemasonry, I saw two fellow Homicide detectives I was working with on the Philadelphia Police Department wearing the square and compasses on their lapels so I asked how I could become a part of it." He was entered into Freemasonry on Apr. 18, 1985 in Gothic Lodge No. 519. He is currently a member of Richard Vaux-Ivanhoe No. 384, Philadelphia - a member of the Valley of Philadelphia, AASR, and was coroneted a 33° Mason in 2000 at the Supreme Council Meeting in Pittsburgh,

What do you enjoy most about Freemasonry?

"You can be a bricklayer, a carpenter, a bus driver, a medical doctor, or you can be a political leader, a great military leader, or you can be a Superior Court Judge, but at the end of the day everyone is a brother within the lodge.

Where do you see the future of Pennsylvania Freemasonry?

"I have much respect for the current leadership in the Grand Lodge and its future leaders, for their desire to bring in more youthful members that will bring more energy into the lodges and for their efforts in making lodges more attractive for these new men. Men join Freemasonry to give, not to take. Like President John Kennedy's saying: 'Ask not what your country can do for you; ask what you can do for your country.' The same should apply to Freemasonry." Why should a man join Freemasonry?

"One day we are all going to die and when we are lying on our death bed, what do you want to be known as? What do you want to leave? What's that legacy we have out there? To me a lot of that has to do with what good we [Freemasons] have given back to our community, to our state, to our country. That's why I'm a Mason." *

Autumn Day was a wonderful celebration at the Masonic Village at Elizabethtown, as we were joined by more than 7,000 Pennsylvania Masons, their families and friends on September 11th, Patriot Day. It is always an enjoyable time to meet and greet individuals from across the Commonwealth, and some visiting from as far away as Florida, to view first-hand the Mission of Love that the Family of Freemasonry accomplishes through our Masonic Villages.

The skies were clear and the food was great - but it's the fellowship that makes this day spectacular. Everywhere you turned, you could feel the excitement of the entertainment, as faces delighted, toes tapped and hands clapped with the many bands playing. Young eyes marveled at the model railroad club, the clowns' antics and the jugglers' stunts. Shoppers delighted in the many goods and wares offered at the gift, craft, woodworking and farm market stands.

The Wachovia Masonic Village Charity Mini Grand Prix created additional excitement this year, as 15 Masonic and community racing teams came together to Share the Light of Freemasonry by combining friendly competition, skill and fun to raise charitable funds,

Thanks to all of you for being a part of this special day. If you were unable to join us, I encourage you to mark your calendar for next year's Autumn Day: Saturday, September 24th.

preparations to gather with our Family of Freemasonry and enjoy fellowship. This holiday season, I invite you to share your time and talents with our residents at the Masonic Village nearest you. State Police Degree Team Confers Master Mason Degree

by Robert F. Lynch, Secretary Azalea Fellowship Lodge No. 687

On April 20, area Freemasons gathered at the Masonic Temple on Wyoming Street as Corporal Michael T. Sniscak III of

Troop N. Pennsylvania State Police, Hazelton, received the Master Masons degree in Freemasonry and became a full member of Azalea Fellowship Lodge No. 687.

The Pennsylvania State Troopers degree team (bearing no official affiliation with the Pennsylvania State Police) consisted of Cpl. John Madison, P.M., of Quakertown, conferring Master; Sgt. Homer Jones, P.M. of Pocono Lodge No. 780, Senior Warden, and Trooper Dean Deem of Tamagua Lodge No. 238, Junior Warden. Cpl. John Richards, who coordinated the event, was Cpl. Sniscak's Guide.

The other State Police who assisted in the Degree Work were Troopers Dick Armbrust, Robert Caprari, Mark Michael, and Thomas Getz. The Troopers conducted themselves with characteristic dignity, respect, aplomb, and professionalism, as was particularly conveyed by Bro. Homer Jones when he delivered The Charge at Raising.

Several of the degree team members journeyed from as far as the Allentown, Bethlehem, Quakertown, and Wilkes-Barre areas.

The solemnity and profundity associated with conferring a Master Mason Degree was underscored in the closing ceremony as Cpl. John Richards presented a Bible to the newly made Master Mason. The soliloguy, threaded with State Police themes, was delivered with eloquence and passion by Cpl. Richards.

Thus was Cpl. Michael T. Sniscak welcomed as a Master Mason that night. *

on December 4, 2004, at the magnificent Masonic Temple in Philadelphia.

Proceeds from the evening will benefit the Children's Identification Program (CHIP), a safety measure designed for children, parents and families.

This will be the first time the Temple will be open for a Gala evening event, guests are welcome to explore and enjoy its intrigue and history. Tours of the Temple will amaze and enlighten guests and give everyone a glimpse into the Masonic World.

CHIP is the most comprehensive service of its kind anywhere and is provided free of charge. Through the use of new technology of digital imaging, a child's vital information can be recorded and packaged in a special kit for parents for safekeeping. Should the need arise, this packet can be handed to any law enforcement agency and the information can be retrieved and shared with other agencies in an effort to locate a missing child. Demand for CHIP has been astounding! The funds raised at this event will be used to purchase the necessary materials.

This is strictly a volunteer program and members of the Blue Lodges throughout Pennsylvania volunteer their time and services.

The PA Masonic Foundation for Children sponsors numerous programs benefiting our children. Many of you will be familiar with D.A.R.E., another program brought into the schools with the help of the Children's Foundation.

With the aid of funding raised at the "Sharing the Light Gala", it is anticipated that well over 300,000 Pennsylvania children will be able to be identified.

Contributions are tax-deductible.

The Gala will be spectacular! An evening of beautiful music, including a Quintet from members of the Philadelphia Orchestra, and delicious food will accompany the guests as they wander though the colorful and mysterious Masonic Temple. Learn the origins of this organization and how it evolved to become one of the most prominent philanthropic organizations in the world.

The magnificent Halls will be open for tours and a predinner concert by the Philadelphia Boys Choir will be held in the stunning Corinthian Hall. Of course, there will be both a silent and exciting live auction.

Get a group together from your Lodge and call for reservations. Charter a bus and solicit Community leaders for ticket sales. It will be a great evening!

Florida Hurricane victims helped by District 36 Lodge Members

by Robert J. Bateman District Deputy Grand Master, 36th Masonic District

This is what Freemasonry is all about - helping those in need!

On August 15, 2004 I received a phone call from Bro. Jonathan Riley inquiring how we could help the hurricane victims in Florida. Having contacted Bro. Stephen Gardner, RWSGW, concerning this matter I contacted Bro. Robert Green, District Instructor in Moore Haven, Florida.

I spoke to Bro. Green about helping and he told me he would find out and get back to me. About an hour later I received a phone call from Bro. Kenneth Johnson a Master Mason of Eagle Lodge No. 19 in Hillsborough, North Carolina.

Bro. Johnson and I spoke concerning the hurricane victims and how we could help. I told Bro. Johnson that there will be four of us going to Florida and he asked if he could join us. Bro. Johnson then invited Bro. Jonathan Riley an Entered Apprentice Mason and Bro. Robert Jordan, Senior Warden, both from Prospect Lodge No. 578, Bro. Vincent Gaudini Sr., Senior Master of Ceremonies from Springfield-Hanby Lodge No. 767 and me to be guests at his home the first night of travel. Bro. Johnson and his family did not know us from Adam and yet fed us and put us up for the night. This is what Freemasonry is all about.

That evening we made many phone calls to Florida trying to find out where we could help and finally got through to the Red Cross. At that time they could not answer our questions and had to get back to us. Not hearing from them Monday evening we called back on Tuesday morning and finally found out we were needed in Arcadia, Florida, a small town about 70 miles from the Gulf Coast. Due to a health problem Bro. Jordan had to return home from North Carolina and was unable to continue the trip.

We arrived in Arcadia Wednesday, August 16, and found this town to be in great need of help. Telephone poles were snapped like toothpicks, wires down, fields flooded, homes and businesses destroyed, and many people homeless. Their only possessions were the clothes on their backs.

Having signed in at the American Legion Post we were sent to a Middle School where we worked for the Salvation Army in food services. Our duties were to receive food, water, and clothing and to distribute the same when needed. We also served as security, trash, and clean up men. We unloaded trailers of water, which was very scarce, and in great demand.

The School opened its door to the Gym and set up a shelter for all who needed it.

The National Guard was present protecting the people and the properties that were damaged or destroyed by Hurricane Charley.

ABC interviewed us and when asked where we were from we told them we were Pennsylvania Freemasons. When asked why we came all the way down there to help, we told them -

A Woman's Touch

by Deb Phillips

"The Navy has both a tradition and a future-and we look with pride and confidence in both directions."

- Admiral George Anderson

What is tradition? Merriam-Webster defines it as "an inherited, established, or customary pattern of thought, action or behavior." In our everyday lives, we are faced with tradition in many places - home, work, church and organizations, including our Masonic family - often with the explanation, "that's the way we've always done it." But does that make tradition right? Is tradition always guiding us to advancement for the future?

In our own families, traditions guide our memoriesmaybe a weekly game night, an annual pilgrimage to the beach, or generations of family members getting together one day a year to cook and can a special family sauce or bake holiday cookies.

As we grow older, we consider our own memories created by traditions, and try to decide what traditions we would like to establish for our children and grandchildren . . . something that says, "this is special and unique to our family."

Consider our Masonic family organizations-we need to look in both directions . . . back at tradition. and ahead for the future generations of members. Only by doing so can we preserve what is importantgenerous charitable endeavors and fellowship and friendship with those who share common valueswhile making the changes needed to keep pace with society and guarantee the place of our organizations in the future. Bylaws can be changed without changing principles.

The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania took a huge step into the future in October with the Man to Mason One-Day Adventure. By trying something new, Pennsylvania Freemasonry welcomed many new members who may have found it difficult to receive their degrees in the traditional manner.

As we draw closer to the holidays and a new year, let each of us give ourselves to listening to new ideas, and resolve to receive those ideas with an open mind. Only then can we truly look with pride and confidence in both directions.

Start a new family tradition this holiday season, looking in "both directions"-during a family get-together start a journal, with each person writing something they were thankful for in the present year, and a hope or goal for the coming year. This journal will chronicle growing families, growing children mastering handwriting, as well as achievements and accomplishments, perpetuating pride and confidence in those things that your family values. *

Donald L. Albert R.W. Grand Secretary

A Great Day for Freemasonry!

What a great success our Man to Mason One Day Adventure has been, and our program is not over yet it continues until the end of December. You still have time to make a difference by Sharing the Light with one whom you believe possesses the qualities for membership.

Remember, that for membership in our Fraternity the man must ask you to be part of this great organization. Please use the ASK! or Friend to Friend brochures when you believe that he is a good man who wants to be better.

Our 13 site locations were swelled with new Candidates that we can now all call Brothers.

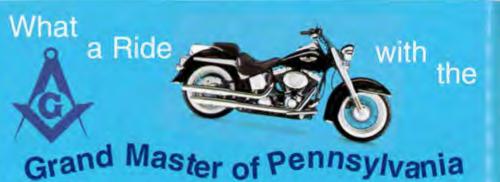

All of the site locations were supported from our membership by participation as Mentors and observers of this great event.

As with all of us, our Fraternity has always been proud that our membership comes from all walks of life with different political and religious beliefs still meeting together in harmony as friends.

The addition of these new members will provide us with future officers and new ideas needed within our lodges for the benefit of Freemasonry.

We ask you to continue to Share the Light by supporting Brother William Slater II, R.W. Grand Master, with his continued endeavors to strengthen Pennsylvania Freemasonry. *

Masonic Village at Warminster Celebrates 75th Anniversary

n August 21, the residents, family, friends, Advisory Council members, volunteers and staff gathered to celebrate the facility's 75th Anniversary with a Hawaiian Luau, featuring entertainment, food and fun.

The home, originally located in Germantown, was dedicated on June 1, 1929. as the Eastern Pennsylvania Eastern Star Home. The Grand Chapter built a new home in Warminster in 1972 at its current location. In 1999, the facility became part of the Masonic Homes of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania. The name of the home was changed to reflect the tradition of both organizations - the Masonic Eastern Star Home-East - and now is known as the Masonic Village at Warminster.

Thanks to generous donations, the Warminster home has gone through extensive renovations over the past year, enhancing its function and beauty.

The new Assembly Room, named the Frey-Southampton Masonic Center, was completed in September. Lodge, Eastern Star and other Masonic group meetings, as well as large group resident activities, can now be held at the village. A significant portion of funds for this project was provided by Southampton Square Club and through the estate of John Frey Jr.

Masonic Village at Warminster provides assisted living and nursing services to 62 residents. The home's mission includes providing services to individuals in Philadelphia County who are day-one Medicaid recipients. For more information, call (215) 672-2500. Made in China: Masonic export items for the Western market

During the 18th and 19th cen-turies there was an extraordinary demand for Chinese-made items in England, Europe and America. Silks and leas were the primary basis of trade, but westerners also desired "exotic" items such as porcelain, lacguerware, ivories, fans and clothing. A great number of these items were made specifically with the Western market in mind, and could be personalized depending on the buyer's taste and fancy, including and not limited to coats-of-arms, biblical scenes, and Masonic symbols.

Affluent and metropolitan Masons of the 18th and 19th centuries desired these custom-decorated items because they displayed not only their fraternal membership, but also their social standing and good taste.

One example of such an item is the

It is known that many items of clothing were produced for export to the west, but most have not survived due to their perishable nature. Brothers and Sons are Made Brothers

On June 14, 2004, at a Stated Meeting of University Lodge No. 51, W.M. Allan W. Stitzer, P.M. conferred the three degrees of Freemasonry upon his two sons, Allan W. and B. Jordan Stitzer in Ionic Hall of the Masonic Temple. Their uncles, J. David Stitzer, P.M. and Arthur B. Stitzer, III, P.M., in the stations of Senior and Junior Wardens. The Guides were Bros. Harold Lampe, III, P.M. and Jeffry A. Lobb.

Freemasonry is a tradition in the Stitzer family. Allan Jr. and his brother Jordan are fourth generation Masons. Their grandfather served as DDGM for eight years and before that, as W.M. of Lodge No. 51 in 1958. During that year, the Masters of District A forged life-long relationships and it was that group as Past Masters who conferred all three degrees on the new Masons' father, Allan and his brothers. Allan, serving Lodge No. 51 as Worshipful Master in 1973, was the youngest Worshipful Master in the history of University Lodge.

The new Brethren are both attending Lehigh University. It is hoped that after graduation they will follow their ancestors in serving University Lodge No. 51. *

Preparing to See History in the Making

No matter the outcome of the election on November 2, Pennsylvania DeMolay will be making their "once-every-fouryear" sojourn to the Inauguration of the President on January 20, 2005.

This trip will be the fifth time for Pennsylvania DeMolays to attend the Inaugural. The first year was in 1989 when a contingent of PA DeMolay State Officers attended the inauguration of George H.W. Bush. This grew into a 1993 trip sponsored by PA DeMolay for the inauguration of William J. Clinton, attended by two busloads of DeMolays, advisors and families. In 1997, this grew into a five-bus trip for DeMolays, Job's Daughters, Rainbow Girls and their families. This was repeated four years later for the George W. Bush Inauguration, Lodge No. 9 of Pennsylvania has generously sponsored a part of the trip each year since 1993. The 2005 trip will start with departure from the Masonic Conference Center -Patton Campus in Elizabethtown: a boxed lunch in the dining room of the George Washington National Masonic Memorial; and then travel by Metro to the heart of Washington D.C. for groups to take their places along the parade route. Trip cost, including bus fare, lunch and metro pass is $30 per person.

Invitations have been mailed to the Masonic-related youth groups in Pennsylvania. For more information, please contact Dave Berry, Executive Secretary, at 1-800-266-8424 x 4 (in PA) or 717-367-1536 x 4. 未

DeMolay's Visit National Capital

On Wednesday, September 29, members of George Washington Chapter, Order of DeMolay, which meets in Chambersburg, PA went to Washington, DC to visit U.S. Congressman Bill Shuster. Chapter Master Councilor Chad Reichard teamed up with Congressman Shuster early in the morning at the Longworth House Office Building and shadowed the Congressman through-out the day.

The event included a tour of the U.S. Capitol by George Washington Chapter's own Senior DeMolay Chris Gindlesperger, a staffer to Congressman Shuster whose father, Bud Shuster, held the congressional seat before his son. He is a Senior DeMolay from al-Aksa Chapter that met in Altoona, PA.

Shuster helped Alexia's parents, Tim and Sue McCarl, adopt him from Russia. Alexia joined his brother Colin, who became a member of the McCarl Family in the 1990's.

The group, including Reichard, McCarl, Adam Miley, and Eric Bailey, also toured the new Native American Museum and took a quick metro ride to the George Washington National Masonic Memorial in Alexandria, Virginia, *

Victorian Funeral Reinactment Honors 150 year old Allentown Cemetery

On August 28, an 1857 Masonic Funeral Service was reenacted by Jordan-Martin Lodge No. 673 at the 150th Anniversary Celebration of the Union & West End Cemetery in Allentown. The service was part of a Victorian Funeral complete with horse-drawn hearse and Civil War reenactors and mourners. The Lodge was dressed in the required dress of the period and wearing Barger Lodge No. 333 aprons, as that was the only Lodge in Allentown in the 1860's. Bro. James A. Stewart, P.M., exemplified the service. Bro. Carl J. Willis, W.M., is in profile on the left. To his right is Bro. Charles S. Canning, P.M., President of the Cemetery and organizer of the event. The casket was on loan from the Valley of Allentown and the pall bearers hailed from Allentown DeMolay and Boy Scout Troop 25, Emmaus. *

Bro. Eugene K. Mansdoerfer, 92, receives prestigeous Daniel Beard Masonic Scouting Award

In June, at the last meeting of Covenant-Excelsion Lodge No. 456, (now William L. Elkins Lodge 271) Bro. Eugene K. Mansdoerfer was awarded the Daniel Beard Masonic Scouting Award for serving scouting for over 80 years. The award was presented by Bro. Robert J. Taylor, DDGM, District "B".

Bro. Mansdoerter's daughter writes: On August 4, my dad celebrated his 92nd Birthday. He has been active in Scouting for over 80 years. He was a Scoutmaster for about 42 years - served on troop committees and is still the Scout I.R. for the Widener Memorial Boy Scout Troop. The only fully disabled Scout troop in the Cradle of Liberty District. He has received various Scouting Awards including the Silver Beaver Scouting Medal, member of the Order of the Arrow for life, and honored by the Widener Memorial school in Philadelphia as "Man of the Year." His grandson David Vogler is an Eagle Scout, his Grandson Ronald Pleis, Jr. is Scoutmaster of St. William Boy Scout Troop No. 563 in Philadelphia. His son-in-law Ronald Pleis, Sr. was Scout Master of former Troop No. 23 which was Eugene's Troop and his great grandson, Kyle Pleis will be receiving Eagle Scout this year.

So you can see why I am so proud of him. My mother, Elizabeth (Betty) recently passed away on August 1, 2004 after they had celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary on June 2, 2004. She was always there by his side in Scouting even though they never had sons only two daughters. *

Sharing the Light through Fifty Years of The Pennsylvania Freemason

Editors of The Pennsylvania Freemason

Bro, William A. Carpenter (1915-1990), the first editor, was eminently gualified for this task. He studied graphic arts, management, and labor relations in college, after which he entered the newspaper business. At first Bro. Carpenter was a printer's apprentice with the Chester Times. Upon completion of his apprenticeship, he joined the staff of the Journal-Every Evening in Wilmington (New-Journal Company, Wilmington, DE), and advanced to typesetter, compositor, and composing room superintendent. Retiring from the newspaper in 1961 to become a full-time employee of Grand Lodge, Bro. Carpenter continued as Librarian and Curator (1961-1969) as well as editor of The Pennsylvania Freemason, thus fulfilling Grand Master Lehr's goal of having the "Editor of Publications... serve as a Director of the Library and Museum." Bro. Carpenter's years at the helm were: 1954-1962, 1964-1969, 1980-1981, He subsequently became a member of the Grand Master's staff (1970-1973), Grand Secretary (1973-1979), then traveled through the Grand Lodge Line to become Grand Master (1984-1985). Bro Carpenter was second to only one other man in number of Grand Lodge Offices held: Bro. John Thomson (1799-1889; Grand Master 1861-1862) is the only man known to have held every Line Office in Grand Lodge, but he was never Librarian and Curator!

Past Grand Master Charles H. Nitsch (1891-1975, Grand Master 1956-1957), chairman of the reorganized Committee on Masonic Culture, became Editor of The Pennsylvania Freemason for Volumes 9 and 10 (1962-1963), after which Bro. Carpenter returned (Volumes 11-16, 1964- 1969). In February 1970 (Volume 17, No. 1) Bro. John L. McCain, who had just been installed as R.W. Junior Grand Warden, became Editor and remained so for that year. After that, however, for the next 20 years, the masthead lists only the Grand Lodge officers, in addition to "Approved and Authorized to be Printed by The Grand Master" (with the Grand Master's name.) This imprimatur was used from Volume 1, No. 1 to the end of Volume 28 (1981). The other "imprimatur," the subtitle "An official publication of the Right Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and accepted Masons of Pennsylvania," also in use from the very first, disappeared in February 1996. It seems that for those two decades, whoever held the post of Assistant to the Grand Master was the Editor, assisted by the Committee on Masonic Culture. According to Past Grand Master McCain (with whom the author spoke on May 3, 2002), Bros. Carpenter and Arthur Thomas Moore, who had been a reporter-editor for The Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph and editor of The Voice of Syria (Shrine) before becoming Assistant to the Grand Master, were charged with the editorship for most of that time. Bro. Carpenter held the reins alone from 1980 until the end of 1981. The Editor was not designated in the masthead again until November 1983, when Bro. Melvin S. Mundie's name appears. Bro. Mundie stepped down after the issue of May 1987, and was succeeded by Bro. Robert A. Pote, who stayed through 1991, then Bro, Robert G. Boone until 1992. At the end of 1992, in time for the November issue of Volume 39, the editorial offices were moved from the Grand Master's office to the then Masonic Homes, and Bro. William J. Prazenica took over the reins, holding them until the end of Volume 42 (November 1995).

Bro. Blaine F. Fabian, 33°, assumed the Editorship in 1996, bringing years of experience to the helm of The Pennsylvania Freemason, where he remained until the end of 2003 (Volumes 43 - 50). The Editor Emeritus, a Navy journalist from 1950 to 1954, had held reporting and editing positions for The Ephrata Review and the Lancaster Sunday News. He then moved into public relations, and worked for 30 years for the Metropolitan Edison Electric Company, before retiring in 1991 and working as a freelance public relations consultant. Bro. Fabian has served Grand Lodge, also in other capacities, for four decades, for which he was awarded the Franklin Medal in 1999 and the DeMolay Legion of Honor in 2002.

Bro, D. William Roberts, 33°, appointed Editor in 2004 (Volume 51, No. 1), has also served Grand Lodge in many ways, most notably and currently as District Deputy Grand Master for the 47th Masonic District, The Korean War veteran holds a journalism degree from Duquesne University, and brings to the position of Editor of The Pennsylvania Freemason a wealth of experience from a 36-year career in promotion and public relations for such diverse companies as (among others) the Pittsburgh Symphony Society, Universal Pictures, Gulf Oil Corporation, and prior to his retirement, was Marketing Director of Station Square, an office, shopping, and entertainment Center in Pittsburgh. He was also managing editor for two community papers in the Pittsburgh area. May he prosper as The Pennsylvania Freemason continues to be one of the best vehicles for Sharing the Light of Freemasonry! *

Brethren: Reacquaint byourself with the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania by visiting it again or for the first time. Bring family, relatives and friends. See the Masonic Temple of today standing in grandeur on a corner of Philadelphia once occupied by a coal yard with cobblestone streets. You will then know why it has been called one of the great wonders of the Masonic World.

The philanthropic Society Endowment Fund contributions that are received are used to maintain and preserve this beautiful architectural wonder. It exemplifies the heritage and tradition of Pennsylvania Masonry.

The Benjamin Franklin room, with its huge bronze doors, each weighting one ton; the Masonic Library and Museum that houses one of the finest collections of Masonic Treasures in the world, which includes Bro, George Washington's Masonic Apron. There are seven elegant Lodge Rooms.

This is the perfect time of the year for you to be thinking of a tax deduction and there is no better way for you to give to the Gold Book or Philanthropic Societies, to help preseve and maintain this great building. Remember $500 will place your name in the Gold Book and no amount is too small to get you started. You can build up your contributions on a monthly, semi-annual or annual basis. When you reach the $500 level, your name will automatically be placed in the Gold Book. Why not send your contribution today?

The Philanthropic Society is yet another way for you to preserve this great building. By mailing a gift of whatever amount you would like to give, this money will not be used until there is ten million dollars in the endowment. fund and then only the interest will be used.

"Team Work" - Coming together is a begin ning. Staying together is progress. Working together is success. *
