SECRETARIES SERVICE JEWEL

This is the approved design which is supplied complete with a pocket case, and a jewel holder which fits into the breast pocket. For durability, the jewels are plated in "hard" gold which, even if worn many times annually, does not wear off in a lifetime. A minimum of 6 full years as lodge Secretary is required to qualify for this Service Jewel.

The top bar is engraved with the name of the lodge, except when the name is too long for the available space, in which case just the Number will be used, e.g. "LODGE No. 137"

.....
Lodge Name Lodge No.

The middle bar is engraved with the individual's initials and surname, plus the letters P.M. in the case of Past Masters.

Initials Surname P.M.?

The bottom bar is engraved with the term of office, e.g. 1978 - 1985. Should the Secretary still be in office, the final year will be left blank to be added when the Secretary retires from office.

Year Elected Year Retired

PAST SECRETARIES - Provision has been made for Past Secretaries to wear this Jewel if they have served as Secretary for six or more years.
